

~~SECRET~~

METALS AND MINERALS SECTION

NAME OF JOB (rating). Business Economist (GS-13).

DUTIES:

Acting Chief of the Minerals and Metals Section, responsible for performance of the functions listed in Section II-a as they relate to minerals and metals.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training:

BS from the University of California.

Experience:

Exploration, operation and management of gold properties in Colorado, California, New Mexico, Idaho, Nevada, Washington and Montana. Also in Mexico, Guatemala, Colombia, Venezuela, British, French and Dutch Guiana, Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Korea and Japan.

Exploration, operation and management of tin properties in Bolivia, Cornwall, Portugal, Malaya and Japan.

Exploration, operation and management of copper properties in Idaho and India.

Work in lead and zinc properties in Idaho and Nevada.

Managed chrome mines in California in 1917.

Oil exploration in Iran and Afghanistan.

Government Experience:

BRA - Assistant Deputy Administrator of 50 metal and mineral codes.

BFC - Examining Engineer on mining loans for gold, platinum, etc.

BEC - Division Engineer of Defense Plant Corporation.

BFB - Conservation Division, metals.

Interior - Chief Far East Unit of Bureau of Mines.

~~SECRET~~

70/PRZ

SECRET

METALS AND MINERALS SECTION

NAME OF JOB (rating): Business Economist (GS-13).

DUTIES:

Under the supervision of the Chief of the Section, responsible for performance of the functions listed in Section II-c as they relate to Metallurgy and Construction Materials in the whole area and Cokes in the USSR and Outer Mongolia.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training:

Graduate Metallurgist. Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy. 1929-1933. B. S. Degree.

Experience:

16 years experience as a metallurgist dealing with technical development, manufacture and fabrication of alloy and plain carbon steels, also brass and bronze. Experience was gained with leading producers, namely: Crucible Steel Company, Eastern Stainless Steel Company, Rustless Iron and Steel Company, American Steel Foundries, and Western Cartridge Company. Experience covered plant process control and development, laboratory research and development and sales engineering.

NAME OF JOB (rating): Intelligence Officer, (GS 12).

DUTIES:

Under the supervision of the Chief of the Section, responsible for performance of functions listed in Section II-c as they relate to cokes, iron, steel and ferro-alloys in Eastern Europe.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training:

University of Wisconsin, 1925-27. Library School, University of Wisconsin, 1928.

Experience:

O. H. Simmons Library, Kenosha, Wisconsin, 1928-1930.

United States Army Air Corps. Organized first intelligence section of the United States Army Air Corps. Built up section to 40 people, which became A-3 Division of the Army Air Forces. Selected, trained and supervised work of all intelligence analysts, which included all phases of air intelligence throughout world. December 1937 - July 1940.

SECRET

701222

SECRET

Transfer requested by A. C. of S. G-2, WDOE to organize first air intelligence division of Staff. Selected, hired, trained a force of approximately 50 civilian analysts. Primary responsibility was review of all reports, studies, etc., prepared by division on all phases of air intelligence throughout world. Wrote air sections of G-2 BID. July 1940 - May 1943.

Assistant to Chief of section, Japanese Air Order of Battle Division, Special Branch, G-2. Primary responsibility was preparation and publication, "Japanese Naval Air Force Order of Battle". Had staff of 10 naval officers and ratings. Periodic delivery of 7 one hour lectures to G-2 Intelligence School. For performance of these duties received Exceptional Meritorious Civilian Award from Secretary of War. May 1943 - September 1945.

Assigned responsibility for Soviet Air Force and for production of aircraft in the USSR. Preparation of all reports and estimates on Soviet Air Intelligence issued by G-2, including Soviet BID and TM 20-340, Handbook of USSR Military Forces. September 1945 - December 1946.

Transfer requested by CIA. Complete responsibility for all intelligence factors, except military, for Hungary and for the economic factor for Poland. December 1946 - September 1948.

September 1948 to date. Present assignment, see above.

NAME OF JOB (rating): Business Economist (GS 11)

DUTIES:

Under the supervision of the Chief of the Section responsible for performance of the functions listed in Section II-c as they relate to Iron, Steel and Ferro-Alloys in the USSR and Outer Mongolia.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training:

Three years University of Chicago. Special courses University of Utah - Economics. Russian language training. Intelligence Courses - OSS.

Experience:

General economic reporting from Manchuria 1945-1946. Reported on all aspects of economy for OSS on basis of own observations and evaluated and collated field reports. Briefed Paulley Mission, military authorities and war correspondents. Present position Economic Branch D/EE, CIA. 1947 to date.

SECRET

SECRET

NAME OF JOB (rating): Business Economist (GS-11)

DUTIES:

Under the supervision of the Chief of the Section responsible for performance of the functions listed in Section II-c as they relate to Non-Ferrous Metals and Non-Metallic Minerals in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Trieste and the Soviets.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training: BA George Washington University.

Experience:

Economic Section of the China Branch - War Department. Lectured before groups of officers and civilians on economy of China. Evaluation and collation of reports - 1941 - 1945.

In China with UNRRA office. Worked in Shanghai, Peiping, and Tientsin. Evaluated and analyzed reports of field workers. 1945 - 1947.

Economic Section of China Branch, CIA. Duties concerned transportation, trade, minerals and metals. 1947.

Present position, Economic Branch D/EE, 1948 to date.

NAME OF JOB (rating): Business Economist (GS-9)

DUTIES:

Under the supervision of the Chief of the Section responsible for performance of the functions listed in Section II-c as they relate to Non-Ferrous Metals and Non-Metallic Minerals in Albania, Bulgaria, Finland, Rumania and Yugoslavia.

QUALIFICATIONS

Formal Training:

All training within government itself in twenty years association with radio and/or mining engineers.

Experience:

NSA - NSA - four years with special emphasis on African countries. State Department - four years with special emphasis on African countries.

CIA - three years with emphasis on African countries, the USSR and its Satellites.

SECRET

PPR2